IT'S TUCSON AGAIN!

El Conquistador, The Sequel!

One thing the ABI board and the 2001 reunion committee kept hearing from attendees was what a perfect location the El Con was for a Brat-style reunion. Then the hotel itself expressed an enthusiastic desire to submit a proposal for our return in 2003. But the real clincher was when Erica Ryrholm-Martin hinted that she would be willing to chair the event again -- with some provisions, of course -- and she would be able to bring back most of her incredible team for a second effort.

With that combination of factors, what else could we do?

Negotiations were lengthy and tough, but your unbeatable negotiating team lead by Diana Ryrholm-Geerdes and Diane Knipfel-Adams relentlessly and repeatedly beat the hotel into submission and have signed the best contract the ABI has ever had. So...

Editor's Notes

A little new, a little old

Well, no doubt you have read the big news about the next reunion. If not, you might want to just take a look "above the fold" as we say in the business.

But there is more. There was so much information to get across in this newsletter that we had to go to 12 pages. Astute ob servers will remember we had to do that after the Atlanta reunion as well.

We have included some news of the past as well as the all-important news of the future. You will find a long article describing the last Tucson reunion right across the
